Low Price of Newfoundland Fish.

The St. John's Herald says:
"There will be general regret at the news that fish is likely to fall still lower. It is said that fish which costs $5.10 to land in Brazil has to be sold there for $4.65 and if this be true our merchants stand to lose some thousands of dollars on their shipments. It is obvious from all accounts that some new method of grappling with the problem of exporting our staple is necessary and he will be a public benefactor who can devise ways and means whereby this can be done. Certainly, the situation is now so serious as to excite the concern of all well-wishers of the colony."

Large Haul of Herring.

The most successful haul of herring made by any of the fishermen in the vicinity of Calais for many years was that made by the Small Brothers of Buck's Harbor on Monday night. Two hundred hoghead were taken and as they are worth $4 per hoghead, $800 was cleared from the night's work.
